

SNIPPETS

L&T ships first nuclear equipment to U.S.

MUMBAI: Larsen & Toubro delivered the first four dry shielded canisters for Transnuclear Inc. of the U.S., an Areva company. These canisters form a part of orders of 50 such units for three leading American nuclear power plant operators to be manufactured in accordance with the U.S. code of Federal Regulations and Nuclear Safety Class I standards, says a release. — Corporate Reporter

Aircel partners Facebook

CHENNAI: Aircel introduced an innovative way through the new Facebook Voice Updates on Aircel which lets people connect to its users' family and friends on Facebook in their own voice, even without internet access on their mobile phones, which makes it an easy access for a large audience anytime anywhere, says a release.

Jump in Jindal Poly's Q3 profit

NEW DELHI: Jindal Poly has reported a net profit of Rs. 221.09 crore for the third quarter ended December 31, 2010 against Rs. 34.85 crore in the corresponding period in the previous year. The turnover has risen by 89 per cent to Rs. 782.95 crore, according to a company release.

MARG joins hands with Ireland firm

CHENNAI: MARG has signed a memorandum of understanding with Ireland-based construction major Lagan Construction. Both the companies will collaborate with each other to strengthen the development of construction of roads, airports, water and sewage treatment plants in India. — Corporate Reporter

Forms and Gears to produce auto components

CHENNAI: Forms and Gears has made a foray into auto component manufacture. According to a release, a separate division has been spun off to cater to this requirement. Forms and Gears plans to supply machined components to Ashok Leyland for the new U-Truck model for which the company is now developing fixtures.